

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Library of Congress has designated 1989 as "The Year of the Young Reader" to remind Americans of the joys and importance of books for children and young adults; and,

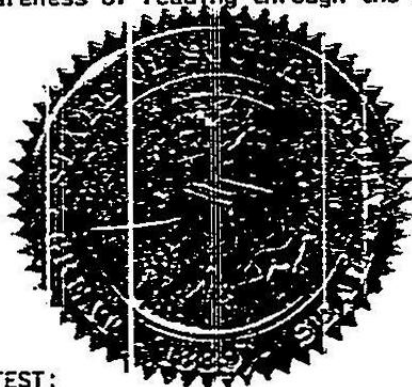

WHEREAS, President Reagan, in proclaiming 1989 as "The Year of the Young Reader," has called upon families, parents, and concerned individuals, as well as schools, libraries, businesses and other organizations, to support reading activities; and,

WHEREAS, Pizza Hut, Inc., sponsor of the BOOK IT! National Reading Incentive Program, has joined with the Library of Congress to help celebrate by creating National Young Reader's day, during which schools and communities across the nation will participate in such activities as library projects, book drives, storytelling and young reader recognition:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 15, 1989, as in South Dakota and encourage all schools and students to increase their awareness of reading through the recognition of this day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
